April 26, 2014 12:-00—5:00 p.m. Cedar Creek Parkway/Cedar Beach

How many times have you driven or walked along Ott Street in spring enjoying the awesome picturesque view of the beautiful cherry trees in full bloom? Inspired by one of our favorite city treasures come join us in showcasing this beautiful wonder.

Allentown Cherry Blossom Festival provides a host of fun family-friendly activities including

- * Kite-making with Master Kitemaker Clifford Quinn
- * Puppet-making with Master Puppeteer Doug Roysden & the Mock Turtle Marionette Theater
- * Parasol painting
- * Origami (traditional paper folding)
- * Calligraphy
- * Victorian Olympics (eg, old-fashioned tug-of-war, potato sack races, pass the potato, and more)

Participate in a traditional Japanese tea ceremony with traditional Japanese flute music presented by Nora Suggs.

Watch martial arts demonstrations. Additional music presented by the Acoustic Project.

Back by popular demand—Stonekeep Meadery

And there's more...

Exhibitors, good food, good music and lots of fun in one of Allentown's great parks! Be there!
